HIBERNIANS.
What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 4 will have a long rest, not meeting until the third week next month.

With next month comes a change in the order of meetings for our local divisions.

New York City Hibernians will have a great field day and outing at Dexter Park on June 5.

Division 1 will meet alone the second week in June, and this will give members of other divisions nice opportunity for a friendly visit.

The Ladies' Auxiliary meets next Wednesday night at Falls City Hall, and the business to be transacted should bring out every member.

Judging from the number of tickets the ladies have sold the outing of Division 4 and the auxiliary at Phoenix Hill is an assured success.

The forty-fourth annual athletic carnival of the Ancient Order in Philadelphia will take place at Washington Park on Saturday and Monday, May 28 and 30.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Paul will be fully represented at the national convention. They are holding frequent entertainments and have acquired a nice expense fund.

The County Board has got down to earnest work for the annual celebration, which it is predicted will eclipse anything ever given before by the Hibernians of Louisville.

With the work for the State and national conventions and the different outings of the local divisions before them, June and July promise to be busy months for the Hibernians of the Falls Cities.

Mail Carrier Thomas O'Neill, for twenty-five years Secretary of Division 1 of Minneapolis, has been presented with a beautiful emblem in gold with diamond setting by his Hibernian friends.

The preliminaries incident to the formation of a juvenile division were held Sunday at the Sacred Heart Hall in Superior, Wis. Over sixty boys signified their intention of becoming members.

Division 2 of Syracuse initiated eighteen candidates at its last meeting. A number of visiting Presidents witnessed the work and announced that all were working hard to make the order still stronger.

Division 3 will have business of importance for consideration at the meeting to be held next Thursday night. Committees will report and their discussion promises to be interesting. President Patrick T. Sullivan and Secretary Thomas Stevens urge all members to be present. They will have cigars for all.

Division 2 meets next Friday night and it is the duty of every member to attend. Secretaries Meehan and Keane have received several interesting communications, and it is expected that action will be taken on a number of applications. Before the adjournment the meeting will be addressed by able speakers and in addition a number of visitors are expected.

RIVERVIEW PARK.
Riverview Park, the old White City, has been renovated and made more attractive than ever this year. With its natural beauties and artificial embellishments, it is second to no amusement resort in Louisville. Signor Carlo Ulivieri's military band will furnish classic and popular music both afternoon and evening all of next week. High class vaudeville stunts are booked for the theater, and many amusement devices will be in evidence. The restaurant will be equal to all emergencies, and those who patronized it last year will vouch for the tastefulness of its cuisine. West Broadway cars will carry you right to the gate. Riverview Park will be an ideal place to see the comet next week. A special force of electricians will be on hand each night to arrange the lights so that the comet will appear to advantage.

TRINITY COUNCIL.
Trinity Council held one of the largest meetings in many months last Monday night. One of the important features of the evening was a lecture by Dr. Bernard J. O'Connor on the "Prevention of Contagious Diseases." This lecture was well delivered, highly appreciated and was instructive to all. The Visiting Committee reported that Joseph Hoehner has fully recovered, but that Leo Gunther is still confined to his home. As much routine work as possible was eliminated so that the members might listen to the address of Dr. O'Connor.

FATHER SERAPHIM HONORED.
The people of St. Anthony's parish welcome the news that the Rev. Father Seraphim Schlang, O. M. C., has been chosen pastor to succeed the Very Rev. Father Leo Greulich, who has been made Provincial of the Order of Minor Conventuals. Father Seraphim has been one of the assistants at St. Anthony's since his ordination, and is revered by young and old.

HERE FOR WEEK.
Hon. Ben Johnson, Congressman from the Fourth Kentucky district and candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, arrived in the city Wednesday from Washington and registered at the Old Inn. The distinguished gentleman informed the Kentucky Irish American that he would return to the national capital next week, but that while in Louisville his attention would be given his political interests.

EXCELLENT RACING.
Today will close another week of fine racing at Churchill Downs, and each day brings fresh encomiums for the management of the New Jockey Club. The feature events today will be the Frank Fehr stakes and the Gentlemen's cup. Next week the big stake races will be the Louisville handicap on Thursday and the Kentucky Oaks on Saturday. Good cards are promised for each of the intervening days.

CONFIRMATION.
The Church of St. Leo at Highland Park was thronged Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock when Bishop O'Donoghue administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of thirty who had been instructed and prepared by the pastor, the Rev. John J. Fitzgerald. The altars were specially decorated and the church was ablaze with myriads of lights. Occupying seats within the sanctuary were the Very Rev. Vicar General Cronin and Rev. Fathers Patrick Walsh and George Weiss.

JIM McILHENNY AT THE BALL GAME.
Years ago I heard a song,
"Are you there, Moriarity?"
Since then I have heard a thousand,
But of a different variety.

The song was about a copper
Who never drank any booze,
And while a watching on his beat
He never took a snooze.

I strolled out to the park one day
To see the Louisville play,
For I had nothing else to do
But sport the time away.

I bought a score card at the gate,
And it was a surprise to me
To see upon that score card
The name of Moriarity.

He played the game at short-stop
And played it like a terror
For all through that long game
He never made an error.

The final inning came at last,
The score was three to three
When Bill stepped to the plate—
Says I, "Are you there, Moriarity?"

Bill hit that ball an awful smash
And to the fence it flew;
The crowd began to leaving,
For they knew the game was through.

For Bill had won the game, you know,
The score was four to three;
That night in my dreams I heard the old song,
"Are you there, Moriarity?"

FONTAINE FERRY PARK.
The free gate and good vaudeville attractions coupled with the numerous amusement devices continues to attract crowds to Fontaine Ferry Park. Next week another good bill is offered in the vaudeville line and free concerts will be given both afternoon and evening. Fontaine Ferry Park is a great resort for women and children and almost any afternoon finds the place crowded with happy youngsters.
